AUSTRIAN PROUD OF PART IN WAR

Private Zinn Glad That He Fought Motherland for Uncle Sam

Thirty-four Pennsylvanians Among 300 Yanks in Today's Casualties

Although an Austrian by birth, Joseph Zinn, 282 North Seventh street, did not enter a claim for exemption from fighting with Uncle Sam's forces. His name appears on the casualty list today for the second time.

Some time ago he was officially reported as missing since September 29. Today the War Department acknowledged his return to duty.

Zinn is a private in Company C, 315th Infantry. Letters from him to relatives in Philadelphia say that he was reported missing by mistake. In one letter he writes: "I am doing my best. I am a lucky fellow at that. I have had some great experiences and I will always be proud that I had a part in this war on my right side."

One letter was written from a Red Cross hospital just after he had attended a dance and dinner given by the Y. M. C. A. He explained the reported missing presence in the hospital by saying that he fell a victim to influenza while fighting in the Champagne sector. He was in the hospital two weeks and then returned to his company and he was placed in a company of assault. In a recent letter he stated that he would soon join his own company, which is in Germany with the army of occupation.

Private Zinn is twenty-seven years old, and came to this country about six years ago from Carco, Austria, where he was born. He was drafted last May and sailed for overseas in July, training in the meantime at Camp Meade, Md. He is in the United States Army.

Thirteen Local Casualties. Today's fatalities among Philadelphians with the army overseas, according to the official casualty list, are slightly fewer than on yesterday. Ninety from this city are in contrast with eight listed yesterday. Two men were killed in action, two died of wounds and one succumbed to disease. Eighty-three from the list today are classified as follows: Wounded, degree undetermined, four; missing, two; returned to duty, two.

Thirty hundred names appear on the honor roll for the nation today. Included in the list are thirty-four from this State.

Following are names of two Philadelphians who appear on the British casualty list today. Registered—G. Macdonald; H. J. G. Broedel. Private Harry C. Buchanan, Company B, 117th Infantry, reported missing since November 10, according to a telegram received by his mother, Mrs. Flora Buchanan 2544 North Second street, Philadelphia, on Jan. 22.

The War Department stating that he had been severely wounded November 10. Although closely following the war news in the papers Mrs. Buchanan said she had a good feeling that her son was still alive. She said she had been severely wounded November 10. Although closely following the war news in the papers Mrs. Buchanan said she had a good feeling that her son was still alive. She said she had been severely wounded November 10.

William Gilbert, 39 South Eighteenth street, reported officially to have been missing since the engagement in the Argonne sector in the latter part of September. He is listed in today's casualty list as returned to duty. He was wounded and had been confined in a hospital, letters received from him by his parents said. He is a member of the 124th Infantry and was in France since July. He was in training at Camp Meade three months before sailing. Previous to entering the army he was a clerk in a tobacco store.

Private Edward E. Jamerson, Company L, 315th Infantry, wounded September 29, according to a War Department report, is reported to have returned to duty. He is now in the hospital at Camp Meade, Md. CUBAN CROP OUTLOOK

BEST IN MANY YEARS

Walter M. Van Dusen Paints Rosy Picture of Business on Island

Business conditions in Cuba are on the whole satisfactory in the opinion of Walter M. Van Dusen, assistant manager of the Mercantile Bank of the Americas, New York, who has returned from the island.

"The present sugar crop bids fair to be the largest ever produced in the island," said Mr. Van Dusen, "and most satisfactory has been arranged through the Sugar Equalization Board at a figure which will give the sugar mills in Cuba a very fair return, this crop alone will insure a very prosperous period to Cuba."

"The wages being paid in all branches of business, especially in the sugar industry, are very high, and this gives the ordinary laboring class a large purchasing power which in turn benefits the jobbing and retail stores. The coming tobacco crop is apparently being produced under conditions which will make it the best crop in many years."

"The weather and climatic conditions have been so favorable to the growth of the tobacco plant, and there is every indication that the crop will not only be very fine in quality, but will command a high price in the market."

Concerning the financial outlook Mr. Van Dusen said: "The banking business in Cuba is in excellent condition, as the last few years, having been very prosperous in the sugar industry, have enabled the borrowers from the banks to put their loans in excellent condition. There has been a number of new banks and institutions organized in Cuba recently, but the great prosperity of the island will make room for all of them."

"The American slain in France. Paris, Jan. 23.—(By A. P.)—The body of an American policeman was found yesterday near the railroad at Tournay in the department of Seine-Inférieure. Wounds on the head indicated that he had been murdered."

"Lone American Prisoner in Germany. Berlin, Jan. 23.—(By A. P.)—The American soldier taken prisoner by the Germans during the operations of the American Expeditionary Force in the West, a single one now remains in Germany, the Associated Press correspondent has learned. This prisoner is at Stuttgart, but ill to be removed at present."
